This week

CogUrdd/ PobUrdd

This week, two pupils from the school have been competing in the Urdd Eisteddfod's PobUrdd (baking) and CogUrdd (cooking) competitions. Both succeeded in winning the competitions at the school level, and the next step was to compete against representatives from schools in Cardiff and the Vale of Glamorgan.

Joseph Sweeney from Year 6 competed in the CogUrdd competition, which involved cooking burgers, and he won the Cardiff and Vale round! Quite an achievement and he is the first pupil from Treganna to win the county CogUrdd competition. Joseph will now compete in the national round at the Urdd Eisteddfod in Margam, in May.

Well done also to Tomos Whittam from Year 4, who competed this week in the PobUrdd Cardiff and Vale competition. The task was to bake four cakes, and Tomos's cakes looked delicious! Congratulations to both, and we are very proud of their efforts and success.

Daf James and Bethan Mai visit

Yesterday, author Daf James and illustrator Bethan Mai visited the school to meet Year 5. The sessions were part of the Tir na n-Og Award celebrations, the Welsh Books Council awards. Daf won this year's primary category with his novel "Jac a'r Angel." It was wonderful to welcome both to the school, and Year 5 had a great time listening to them talk about the process of writing and illustrating a book. Thank you for visiting Ysgol Treganna!

After-School Clubs

The after-school clubs run by school staff will finish on Friday, the 29th of November. Thank you to all the staff who have run these clubs this term. Before the end of term, we will send you a list of next term's clubs. These clubs will start on Monday, the 13th of January. Please remember that our clubs are open to everyone.
