Ysgol Treganna

Weekly Newsletter

This Week

At the end of a happy and busy term at Ysgol Treganna, we'd like to thank the whole school community for your support and cooperation. Ysgol Treganna is a very special place, and the ongoing collaboration between staff, pupils, parents, and governors is a testament to the wonderful community that supports our school.

This week, we enjoyed watching the performances of the Reception and Nursery classes. Seeing our youngest pupils performing confidently on the school stage was wonderful. Thank you to all the staff for their hard work preparing the pupils for the shows.

A group from year 6 entertained the residents of Tŷ Melin on Tuesday. The children had a great time performing and the highlight was having the opportunity to chat and socialise with the residents. Thank you very much for the invitation.

We'd like to wish all our families a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

Homework Questionnaire

We are keen to get your views on the school's current homework arrangements. We will continue to send reading books home weekly, as pupils must have the opportunity to read regularly. We will also continue to use the reading record on Teams.

But what is your opinion about the homework that is sent out weekly on Teams? Do the children benefit from this homework? Do your children get enough time to complete homework?

Moving forward, would your child/children prefer to complete a project every half term based on the class concept?

Can you please fill in this short homework questionnaire? Thank you!

Carol yr Ŵyl

Congratulations to Ysgol Treganna, year 6 choir, for reaching the last 10 in the Carol yr Ŵyl competition, S4C.

The television cameras came to the school last month to film year 6 pupils performing the carol "Gwyrth y Crud" in the school hall and in Victoria Park.

Thank you to Mrs Roberts for composing the carol and Mrs C Evans for writing the words.

Remember to watch the Carol yr Ŵyl program on S4C, 8.00 pm, on Friday 20th, when the pupils will be performing the carol.

Good luck to the Ysgol Treganna choir!!
