Weekly Newsletter

This Week

We have had another wonderful week together at school. Urdd Eisteddfod rehearsals have begun, and thank you to the staff and pupils for their enthusiasm!

Term Overview

This term, our whole school concept is “Conflict and the Development of Technology.” Each class has chosen a sub-theme, and the pupils contributed to these sub-themes during their discovery days. Each year group has prepared a detailed overview of their work for the term, and these plans will be shared with you today.

Trips

On Monday, Year 4 visited Bilal Mosque in Treganna. The children had a fantastic time at the mosque, and the visit enriched their understanding of their sub-theme: “Everyday Religions / How do the lives of people in our community differ?” Today, Year 6 went on a trip to Cardiff Castle to learn more about their sub-theme: “Leadership, Power, and Religion”. The pupils participated in workshops focused on World War II, learning specifically about the leaders of the war. Thank you to the staff for organising the visits and the parents who volunteered.

Open Morning

Today, we were delighted to welcome prospective parents to the school for the nursery Open Morning. The new parents received a presentation about our school vision, had the opportunity to visit the Nursery class, and were given a tour of the school. Thank you to everyone who attended—we look forward to welcoming you to the Treganna family soon!

Here is some information about the Book Fair, which will be held during World Book Day week. Please bring books to the reception by February 28th.

Colorfoto will be at the school taking class photos on Tuesday, February 4th.

We ask everyone to wear their school uniform on this day.
