Welsh Music Day

Today, Ysgol Treganna was filled with music and excitement as we celebrated Welsh Language Music Day with a fantastic feast of Welsh music. It was a day full of fun, pride and Welsh spirit, as our pupils had the opportunity to enjoy contemporary music in our own language.

As part of the celebrations, we enjoyed live performances from Eden, Penbleth, Alis Glyn, Jacob Elwy and Martha Elen. In addition, a silent disco was organised in Y Nyth, which proved to be a unique experience and extremely popular with the pupils.

Seeing everyone enjoying themselves, dancing and smiling, was clear evidence of the day's success.

Celebrating Welsh Language Music Day is a special way of promoting pride in our language and culture, and of showing our pupils that Welsh is a living, modern and creative language.

Thank you to the staff for their hard work in organising the day, and to the artists for coming to share their talents with us. It was a day to remember!

Mental Health Week

This week, we have been proud to promote Mental Health Week across the school, focusing on the importance of emotional and physical wellbeing for everyone in our school community.

Many thanks to our Wellbeing Ambassadors and staff for their hard work in organising and coordinating the week's activities.

Each day had a different theme, including mindfulness, kindness, self-care, outdoor learning and creativity. The activities provided valuable opportunities for pupils to reflect, work collaboratively and develop positive strategies to look after their own wellbeing.

On Wednesday, a self-care afternoon was held across the school, with pupils taking part in a variety of activities designed to support their wellbeing and help them relax.

We were also very pleased to be able to offer a Pilates session for staff on Tuesday evening. Thanks to one of our parents, Kyla Nunn, for leading the session. Thank you to everyone who contributed to making the week a success and for helping us continue to place wellbeing at the heart of everything we do at Ysgol Treganna.

Online Safety

We recently had a highly successful day marking Safer Internet Day at school. Pupils discussed ways to stay safe online and learned about the importance of being responsible, respectful and careful when using the internet.

Throughout the day, classes completed a range of engaging activities to reinforce the key messages, including discussions, creative tasks and collaborative work.

Pupils had the opportunity to reflect on their own online habits and to share ideas on how to support one another in staying safe.

To conclude the day, a special assembly was held where the children shared their ideas and pledges for using the internet safely. It was a valuable opportunity to remind everyone of the importance of behaving responsibly online and of seeking help if they have any concerns.

PTA

We would like to extend our thanks to the PTA for organising a wonderful day last Saturday, as we came together in the school hall to enjoy a social afternoon watching the Wales v England match.

It was lovely to see so many families and friends of the school joining us and to feel the strong sense of community that is so important to Ysgol Treganna.

Although the result was not quite what we had hoped for, we are already looking forward to the next opportunity and hoping for a better outcome!

Thank you once again to the PTA for their hard work and continued dedication in supporting the school and creating valuable opportunities for our community to come together.

Year 3

Congratulations to all the Year 3 pupils who performed on Wednesday evening at the First Experiences celebration concert organised by Cardiff Music Service.

It was a very special evening, and we were extremely proud to see our pupils performing so confidently and enthusiastically in front of an audience.

The children have been working hard during their “Dood” lessons in school, developing their musical skills and learning how to play as part of an ensemble.

The performance was a real testament to their dedication and continued practice.

Thank you to Mrs Winterbottom for her hard work and commitment in teaching the lessons and preparing the children for the concert.

Well done, Year 3!

We are very proud of you

Message from PTA

The result on the pitch wasn't quite what we wanted on Saturday, but off the field in our school hall it was a brilliant success. Together we raised an incredible £1,236 for Ysgol Treganna. Thank you to our fantastic families, friends and teachers who supported our England v Wales fundraising event!
